Bado Ofilada

February 3, 2015

Welcome to the Pinoy Nostalgia Discussion Group. Friendly debates should prevail in this group as we try to inform what is happening on the world of radio, television, movies, and the latest news around the Philippines and around the world.

Bawas-bawasan na lang ang mga nakaka-obvious na post, like the post of David Michael Lopez last night na ang English ng 'susunod na' ay 'coming up next', which is obvious naman. Kung ayaw ninyong matulad kina Jan Dominique Arceo at Archie Paredes, HUWAG MAGPOST NG MGA MASYADONG OBVIOUS NA TANONG AT MASYADONG OBVIOUS NA POST.

Bawas-bawasan na rin ang mga irrelevant topics, pati na rin ang change of topic.

In terms of programming schedule, dapat yung listings from Monday to Sunday ang ipopost, huwag yung exclusive lang for one day like Sunday.

Bawal po dito ang nude pics, pati porn pics.

Higit sa lahat, bawal po mag change ng topic.

Gab F. Hernandez No Problem din yun

John Uriel Cabarrubias There's some confusing and uncertain history of those local/provincial TV stations in the Philippines... very special. Sadly, that kind of style and the model has been destroyed bought by the simultaneous satellite broadcast and the advantage of centralized network programming.

PROFILE OF TV VIEWERS

Media Profile, a study of the people's media behavior in 1988, revealed that the average television viewership nationwide was 68.7 percent. The Greater Manila Area registered the highest viewership with 93.5 percent while Mindanao accounted for the lowest with 49.5 percent. The upper class (94.2%) as well as females (85.1%) had a high percentage of viewer-

Class AB registered a high rate of 81.5 percent while class C registered 80.7 percent. It seems that more females (60.5 percent) than males (55.3 percent) watched television everyday.

Peak viewing hours were from 12 noon to 2 PM and from 6-10 PM. Evening prime time had more viewers than daytime peak slots. Females composed largely the daytime viewers while more males watched TV in the evening.

Nang dalawin ni Gina ang bamboo organ

NI EMY MANUEL

MULA SA shooting break ng kasayang pelikulang "ISA... DALAWA... TATLO... MAATAGO NA KAYO!" ay nagtungo si GINA ALAJAR hanggang sa Las Piñas upang mapakinig ang maraming na tawag at buoi ng pambibirang organong ito sa ang piyano at kahaman ay yari sa katutubong kawayang-Pilipino.

Subalit, arong, lakang pang-hinayang ang nadana si GINA nang sabihin sa kanya ng organisang si Anastacio Cristobal na hindi na yari ang dating tawag ng organong yari sa kawayan na tulaga namang bulita sa buong daigdig at pinagtawag ng mga turista mula sa iba-ibang panig ng daigdig.

Noong ulaman si GINA mula sa Parish Priest na si Father MARK LERAGE na ang Bamboo Organ ay karkangang kumpunibis, at habang madaling pambini at kung hindi'y ginagamit sa ilang "KAKAININ" at "GIZRAIN" NG PANAHON". Ang Bamboo Organ ay buhagi sa ng Katurang Pilipino at nangangailangan ng mapagpal.

bagay ito, Subalit kailangan ang madaling halaga upang ito'y mapadala sa buong na JOHANNES KLAES COMPANY sa Bonn, Germany upang ang mga aling bahagi nito'y gawin. Ayon kay Father Mark ang tinatangang magaganap para sa pagpapadala nito ay nagkakahalaga ng P40,000 o hindi-kamulang sa P500,000. Hindi pa kandi rito ang round trip ticket sa pagpapadala nito sa Alemanya. Ayon pa rin kay Father Mark, sila rin ay nakatutubong sa ng

Joshua Jimenez actually before ML ABS-CBN attempted to do what we have today (simultaneous nationwide broadcasts) via microwave technology. TV-3 Baguio and TV-3 Batangas were in place to do just that, and TV-4 Bacolod and TV-3 Cebu are airing tape-delayed programming (one or two week delay) until Bridges on the Air started microwave broadcasts

Joshua Jimenez the rationale: everyone in the country watches the same programs at the same time (which you may find absurd)

John Uriel Cabarrubias For example, CJON-TV (NTV) in Newfoundland, Canada proclaimed to be an independent "superstation", but the programming is supplied by CTV, Global TV and there's few local ones there. The irony because the programming is now centralized by a national TV network but there's a few dozen spaces for local news.

John Uriel Cabarrubias I should conduct a pilot testing of broadcast syndication American-style to the local TV stations. The station will pay the price for the acquisition of TV shows, not the content provider/production company itself because it will ending up result a form of blocktiming.

"The Unforgettable Memory" (意難忘)

Sa Pilipinas, una itong naipalabas sa QTV-11 (GMA News TV now) noong 2007 o 2008. Pero hindi nila tinuloy ang pagpapalabas ng nasabing Taiwanese drama (sa Hokkien) dahil:

- 90-105 minutes ang haba ng mga original episodes.
- Tumagal ng humigit-kumulang na dalawang taon sa Taiwan ang nasabing drama series. (526 episodesx90-105 minutes)

ONE LINERS FROM SOAP OPERAS. When I was in grade school, I always saw my Lola Fely listening to some afternoon soap operas. It was her entertainment after doing her usual chores. I had no choice, but to listen too. From that experience, I picked up several soap opera lines, which I still remember until today.

Soap operas are radio drama programs. Since they are usually aired at the time housewives do their morning laundry, they have manufacturers of detergent products are usual sponsors.

By the way these lines represent the idioms of the 1960s. They are the equivalent of our “hugot lines” today. Some lines:

1. “Inilagay mo ako sa balag ng alanganin (You’ve put me into the quagmire of doubt).”
2. “Para akong pinagtakluban ng langit at lupa (As if I was caught in between heaven and earth).”
3. “Magtiis-tiis ka pa (Keep on enduring).”
4. “Hindi mo ba alam na ang aking ginagalawan ay ang mataas na lipunan? (Don’y you know that I’m now part of the high society)?”
5. “Oh, hindi (Oh, no).”
6. “Nagawa ko ito sa ngalan ng pag-ibig (I did it in the name of love).”
7. “Agaw-buhay niyang sinambit ang mga katagang ‘pinakamamahal kita’ (While dying, he uttered the words ‘I love you most’).”
8. “At magiting niyang ipinagtanggol ang aming pagmamahalan (And he valiantly fought for our love).”
9. “Huwag mo akong ibaon sa matinding pag-aalinlangan (Don’t bury me into intense doubt).”
10. “Wala kang ibinigay sa akin kundi sama ng loob (You’ve given me nothing except bad feelings).”

Bryan Calvin It goes like this: in a red carpet like background, you would see at first awards in the form of plaques. Then the camera pans to see more awards in various shapes, sizes, designs, and sculptures. You could even see the Golden Dove award, the Catholic Mass Media Award, the PMPC Star Awards, etc. in the station ID.
